

Official Guide to Mastering DSST Exams (Part II)
978-0-7689-3381-9

Please note the following updates and corrections for Official Guide to Mastering DSST Exams (Part II). The corrections indicated below are made when the book is reprinted, so the copy you have purchased may already incorporate some or all of these corrections.

BOOK PAGE	CORRECTIONS
Page 181	Applying for Credit , second paragraph. The final sentence should read: It's also important for consumers to check their credit scores several times per year to correct any mistakes.
Page 216	Answer 6 should read: (B)
Page 217	Answer explanation 6 should read: The correct answer is (B). A Chapter 13 bankruptcy filing remains on a person's credit report for seven years. Choice (A), five years, is the number of years in which a person with regular income must pay off debts current at the time of Chapter 13 bankruptcy filing. A person may file for Chapter 7 bankruptcy only once in eight years, choice (C), and a record of a Chapter 7 bankruptcy filing remains on a person's credit report for ten years, choice (D).